TRACEKEY SOLUTIONS

With our innovative software products, we offer smart solutions that are used globally by companies in the life science sector. Therefore we connect brands, contract manufacturers, logistics and authorities intelligently.

YOU ARE THE RIGHT ONE FOR OUR SALES-TEAM IF YOU...

- have the courage to contact new people
- want to try new things and you are open to innovative approaches
- enjoy breaking new ground on your own and structuring yourself in the process
- want to act independently
- have the courage to jump into the deep end
- are confident to make phone calls in English
- are looking for a perspective beyond your studies

YOUR MISSION

- identification of sales opportunities
- analysis of the life science market and research for potential customers
- establishing customer relationships through proactive approach
- coordination of appointments for our sales team
- support of our sales systems for the record of customer meetings and appointments

WHAT ELSE...

- a birthday serenade from the entire company
- sales coaching for personal development
- flexible working hours
- remote or mobile work options
- an agile team with international focus
- daily fresh fruits and vegetables
- free drinks and team events such as barbecues, breakfast, sport and much more...
